Mosaics Out of Brokenness

I enjoy the ministry of Dutch Sheets, and daily read his devotional from “Give Him 15”. On May 9th, 2020 Dutch gave an account about a beautiful mosaic piece of art work that really touched my heart.

The article was about the Royal Palace in Tehran, Iran which houses one of the most beautiful mosaics in the world. The ceilings and walls flash like diamonds! To create this priceless place, the architect had to “rob destruction of it’s power”. You see, originally, the architect called for huge sheets of mirrors on the walls. When the shipment came in from Paris, they found to their horror that the mirrors were shattered. The contractor threw them all in the trash and told the sad news to the architect.

Amazingly the architect ordered all the pieces collected. He then smashed them into small pieces and glued them onto the walls, where they became a mosaic of silvery, shimmering, bits of glass. They were broken to become beautiful.

Many different things happen throughout our life that may cause our dreams to be shattered. The lose of a loved one, a failed marriage, a disease raging through our body, a missed opportunity, and yes, even a pandemic.

Here is the amazing promise we have from His word though, Romans 8:28, “And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose.” God also promises to give us beauty from ashes and the oil of joy for mourning, Isaiah 61: 3.

The great architect of our life has designed a wonderful outcome from the broken pieces that may have come from this shattering of our previous plans and dreams. He wants to create a mosaic of His glory. In the book of Ecclesiastes, chapter 3:11. King Solomon wrote, “He has made everything beautiful in its time...” We may not be seeing that end result yet; the above mentioned mosaic took many years to complete. So never give up on your dreams!

Know that God will do, “exceedingly, abundantly, above all we can ask or even think”. God wants to present you to the world as a testimony of His grace and love. I am personally excited to see what this masterpiece will look like!
