Unity

Over the past month I have been enthralled in the plans and preparations for the Harvest Carnival. This has always been one of our biggest community outreaches!! The primary plans were notes on paper or even just in my head. But as the event grew a little closer and a little closer, it was amazing to me to see the unity of our church body work. We have always had great volunteers at VCF, however, this year seemed different to me. Possibly I have learned to accept help more readily. Different ones in the body offered their help as they were able or available. Some gave monetary blessings, many brought in purchased items, others came and volunteered on various days. Pastor Melissa and kids practiced for days on a puppet production. People invited their friends and family with a zeal and excitement that was so refreshing to see. I even “felt” the prayers of the congregation when this frigid snow and cold snap came in, threatening to cancel our event. Last night was the fruition of all the hard work and plans. The Harvest Carnival was a huge success!! It was so, because of UNITY. Previous CAB kids, (that are all grown up now) came to help. Brand new families to VCF came and helped. Seasoned veterans to this event were here. Old, young, and all ages in between, came to serve as they could. We had a common goal, reach our community with the love of Jesus and show them the way to salvation. All the work would be counted “worth it” if one precious person made Jesus their savior! So here is the exciting part, 15 people answered the altar call. Indeed, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. Thank you volunteers!!!

A Look Back

It is always an honor and privilege to have Billy Miller in the house! Many people received healing under the strong anointing that flowed in his meetings. Even more importantly though, Billy ministered to the Pastoral Staff and confirming the mantel of senior pastor on Pastor Joslyn.

Last night was our annual Harvest Carnival. This is one of our bigger outreaches of the year. The wintery cold weather and snow may have kept some families home, snug and warm, however 160 people ventured out. It was a great time by all. We had 8 carnival booths in the balcony, 7 booths in the Children's Church room, 2 bounce houses, face painting, a tattoo bar, and a pile of nachos. Pastor Melissa's puppet team did a phenomenal job with the blacklight song they performed. We also had a short melodrama which lead into a moving

A Look Ahead

Thankfulness! November is most obviously noted for Thanksgiving. Many of us think of turkey and pumpkin pie when we think of this holiday. We have so many things to be thankful for here in America that we can't limit Thanksgiving to food items. I am thankful for Jesus and all He did on the cross and the promise of Heaven! I am thankful that we can openly pray and share about Jesus or our testimonies in any location.

So this month, I am thankful for those members in our congregation whom have heard about Jesus and will be showing their dedication to Him through water baptism. I'm thankful that we can have friends share about their ministry ventures in Thailand, and yes, I am thankful for the yummy food we can share with you all and ours families.
HAPPY THANKSGIVING!
