Love
 February is known, of course, for Valentine's Day. That equates to a lot of "love" flowing around.

But what is love? The Bible has a lot to say about love. God is love. Love is one of the fruit of the spirit. Actually, love is the fruit of the spirit that holds all of the other fruits together. It would be hard to be filled with peace if we were not first filled with love. It is difficult to be patient with unpleasant individuals if you can't tap into the love of God that He has for the person. Love goes hand and hand with kindness and gentleness.

I would want to say I show a lot of love in my life, however, do I really? If we take a look at the verses that we have tagged as "The Love Chapter", in 1 Corinthians 13, I can see many areas that I still fall short in this love walk. Let's examine these verse and see just what I mean.

The amplified version of this verse is a good one to explore. It states that love endures long and is patient. Was I short tempered with the grocery clerk, the driver in front of me, or with my children? Ouch, hallelujah!

 Love is not rude. Do I hold open the door for others, or do I offer my seat to an older person, have I ever given out rude hand gestures to the guy who cut me off in traffic? These are all ways to check our "rude" meter. Love does not insist on its own rights or its own way. Do you allow others to do things their way or do you demand they do it the way you have always done it? There is another place to say, "Ouch, hallelujah". That verse continues on with, "Love is not touchy or fretful or resentful." This is the one that trips me up the most. I tend to wear my emotions on my shirt sleeve, so I can be touchy. And how many of us are fretful, (worrying is being fretful)? Love takes no account of the evil done to it, nor pays any attention to a suffered wrong. If you are holding a grudge, you are not walking in love. Wow! That definitely shows me I need to keep working on my love walk. But here is the good news, God has shed abroad His love in our hearts!! Since God is love, and we are His child, we have the greatest example to follow. Keep practicing! Stay in contact with God and you will have a great love walk.

1 Corinthians 13: 4-8

“Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails.”

A Look Back

(Tammy Uber)

Wow! Where did January go? I believe that was the quickest month on record.

January was a very exciting month for us here at VCF for the staff and pastors. I have been able to fill all of my weekly teacher vacancies for the pre-school department! Cejae left some big shoes to fill, but God is faithful, and supplied some amazing volunteers.

We also have been able to get some guest speakers for the Youth on Sundays! We have had good attendance in these classes.

On January 27th we had our annual, volunteer appreciation dinner. We enjoyed a great Italian dinner and yummy desserts. The two above mentioned ministries, are just a couple of places that volunteers make a huge difference at VCF. Here are a few more; ushers, greeters, hospitality teams, prayer warriors, praise and worship singers, media specialists, landscapers, Children's Church helpers, Board Members, and outreach teams. We need each of you!!

At the end of January, Todd Bailey ministered at VCF. Todd is always so fun to listen to and the burden removing, yoke destroying, anointing flows out of him.

A Look Ahead

February is relatively not very busy. On Wednesday nights, we will hear from individuals from our congregation, who will share about “Black History” month. As we allow the love of God to dominate our actions to all men, (creation), we WILL see unity among the races.

One very exciting thing I wanted to mention, that will be going on in February, is YOUTH SUNDAYS. Every week in February, a guest speaker will be in the Lift to minister to our youth at 10:30 AM Sunday mornings!! Also, the youth group will be meeting on two Wednesdays, (February 10th and 17th) , at 7:00 PM!

And on a special note, we want to congratulate Pastor Joslyn's daughter and son-in-law, Charmaine and Will, on the arrival of their baby boy. This is grandbaby number 7 for Pastor Joslyn! She will be traveling back and forth to Colorado Springs this month to hold and hug that precious one. Please feel free to text Pastor Joslyn if you need to, she will get back to you quickly between snuggles.

Read and re-read the verse listed in this Victory Report. Remember, love never fails!
