The Secret Place

Psalm 91:1
“He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty”

Welcome Guests!
Thank you for visiting us today! We hope you help yourself to a refreshment in the Hospitality Area before or after the service.

THE SECRET PLACE

The secret place is a dwelling place. Go there daily and you can “abide” in Yahweh’s protective shadow. The secret to a victorious life is an abiding life. Don’t settle for religion - enjoy spending time with Abba. This article today comes from an excerpt from Tuesday, November 23rd’s “Give Him 15” , Dutch Sheets devotional. Dutch’s niece, Rachel Shafer, shares a powerful word in due season regarding the importance and benefit of living in the secret place. Rachel says:

“Recently, Holy Spirit whispered to me, ‘Don’t forsake the value of the secret place.’ I was instantly gripped in my heart and began pondering the statement.

“One of the meanings of value is ‘the regard, importance, worth, or usefulness of something.’ It also means ‘to consider (someone or something) to be important or beneficial; to have a high opinion of.’

“The word forsake means ‘to abandon, renounce or give up.’

“Holy Spirit was urging me to remember the importance and benefits of the secret place, to value its worth in my life. What an awesome reminder for us as we continue navigating these challenging times.

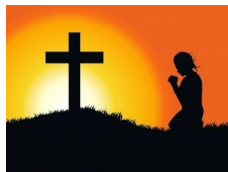

“In the New Testament, Jesus instructs us to go to a quiet place, a secret place, a room with the door shut when we pray (Matthew 6:6). He set an example for this by often going away from His followers to spend time alone with God. In Matthew 14, Jesus received the terrible news that King Herod had ordered the beheading of John the Baptist. Upon hearing this, verse 13 in The Message version says ‘He slipped away by boat to an out-of-the-way place by Himself.’

“Faced with tragic, heartbreaking news, Jesus knew He needed to get away to be alone with His Father. If we want to be infused with strength, grace, peace, hope - we need a secret place.”

“The secret place causes us to become more aware of God’s presence. And in His presence we stop focusing on our problems, and begin seeing His answers; we gain His perspective. We see as He sees and can begin to say what He says. In other words, the secret place enables us to approach our situation with wisdom from above.

My prayer for each of you is that you will build a history of secret place experiences, encounters that will teach, change, shape, and empower you with God-breathed words you can speak into situations and times of testing. Also, that you would value the secret place reward of His presence.”

I will affirm the above sentiment. As the holiday season has started, don’t forget to take time to abide in the secret place, spending time with our Heavenly Father!!
